The statistics are stark: every third marriage in Australia ends in divorce. This second edition of Judy Hogg's Splitting Up is the complete handbook for anyone whose relationship is breaking down and you need good impartial expert information. Whether you are married, or are in a de facto or same sex relationship, Splitting Up covers everything you need to know about separation and divorce. This new 2013 edition reflects the latest changes in Australian family law legislation and in particular the revised definition of domestic violence and how conflict is dealt with in custody disputes.
